in York County

Winter 2011/12

Big Brothers, Big Sisters of Southern Maine

Children throughout York County are waiting to be matched with a Big Brother or Big Sister. BBBS is accepting adult volunteers willing to serve for one year in this one-on-one mentorship role. Screening, training and on-going support are provided. Please visit www.somebigs.org to learn more or phone 773-5437.

Cancer Care Center

Volunteer opportunities at the center- greeter of patients and families in main lobby at the Cancer Care Center in Sanford. Mornings 8-11 or 9-12 slots are available.

American Cancer Society and the Cancer Care Center are co-hosting a training Dec 8 6-7pm at the Cancer Care Center for anyone interested in driving patients to and from cancer treatment. ACS will be providing the training and details of the driving program. If interested, please contact Karen Pierce-Stewart, Executive Director 459-1606

Joyful Harvest Neighborhood Center

A critical need is for volunteers who can commit to the same day each week from 2:30 to 5:15 to assist the site staff with the after-school program. Duties include planning activities for the day; ensuring that snacks are ready and helpers are there to serve; overseeing activities with the children; providing homework assistance as needed; clean up as needed; and assisting the site manager. Please call Shay Stewart-Bouley@ (207) 286-9105.

Keep York County Warm

Help people stay warm this winter! Volunteers needed to install weatherization materials and storm window panels on December 10, 2011 and weatherization materials on January 16, 2012. For more information, please contact United Way of York County, 985.3359.

Sanford Meals on Wheels Program

Sanford Meals on Wheels Program is looking for a few more meal delivery volunteers. A criminal background check and a clean driving record is required. If you enjoy meeting new folks and can spare one or two mornings a week from 10-12(ish), please contact Deb Folsom at 415-6067 or dfolsom@smaaa.org.
